DISQUALIFICATIONS AT HARLEM.

The racing yesterday at Harlem was full of ginger and life and the crowd kept keyed up to the highest pitch all the afternoon. There was considerable activity in the judge's stand, and before the day was over two horses were disqualified. Disqualifications always create more or less talk, and as these two came one on top of the other in quick succession they set the crowd to gossiping and made it so busy that it resembled a hive of bees.

The decision in the third event was the one that set the crowd agoing. In this race was a lot of good ones and on paper any one of them had a chance to win, consequently the betting was lively. At post time it was 3 to 1 and take your pick between Hugh Penny, Queen of Song and Lucky Star. Flora Louise and Sam McKeever were also well supported. It was an exceedingly well balanced field and the race was sharply contested throughout.

To a good start Hugh Penny broke in front, with Del Hart second and Queen of Song third. The field went down the back stretch at a terrific pace, with Del Hart, Flora Louise, Hugh Penny, Pope Leo and Queen of Song all in a bunch. On the far turn, and after going the first quarter in 23 1/2 seconds, Del Hart showed a clear length in front of Flora Louise and Hugh Penny, who were neck and neck and clear of Queen of Song. Rounding the last turn Flora Louise skinned the rail, and when headed for home she was a half length to the good. Del Hart had fallen away beaten, but Hugh Penny and Queen of Song were still in the hunt. About the eighth post the latter got to Flora Louise, and the pair by themselves drew clear of the others. A sixteenth out Queen of Song forged to the front, and as Flora Louise was stopping it looked as though the Queen had the race won. Jockey McCann, however, was not satisfied to leave well enough alone and reached for his whip. When he applied it the filly swerved and collided with Flora Louise. During this time Hugh Penny was racing in behind the pair, but just before the wire was reached he made a spurt and of course could not get through between Flora Louise and Queen of Song. Naturally, all that was left for jockey Nutt to do was to pull up. He did so and made one of the prettiest grand stand plays ever seen on any track.

After weighing in both Nutt and T. Knight complained of being interfered with and as jockey McCann, who rode Queen of Song, admitted that his mount did bear in and interfere with Flora Louise, the filly was set back and Flora Louise given the race, Hugh Penny being placed second and Pope Leo third.

The other disqualification came out of the second race which was a five furlong spin for two-year-olds. First Past was the choice and won easily enough but there was a hard tussle between Mitten and Maharajah for the place. The former beat the princely named colt home but in doing so interfered with him and the judges, after hearing Jockey Hamilton's tale of woe, promptly set Mitten back. This moved Maharajah into the place and third money went to Hilda H.

The fifth and sixth races furnished such close contests that only the judges could tell which horses had won.

The fifth was at four and a half furlongs for two-year-olds and the play was divided between Zaza and Ailanto. The latter is a new arrival at the track and is a fairly good youngster. He got away flying and at once went to the front and led to the stretch where he stopped all of a sudden and for an instant Zaza showed in front. He soon retired, though, and at the eighth post Inlook, from all indications, had the race won. Master W. Bain, however, made the same mistake that McCann did on Queen of Song and foolishly went after his whip. This cost him the race, as he found it too much of a job to hold his horse's head up and use the whip. Beauchamp, who rode Ailanto, did not give up when the colt tired on the turn, and by the hardest kind of work and good lockyship, managed to get up in time to get the verdict. It was a very close fit and the crowd gave Beauchamp a warm round of applause when he came back to the stand. Inlook was surely the best and it was a clear case of the whip in the hands of an inexperienced boy losing a race.

Pay the Fiddler was the fortunate one in the sixth race. He came through with a rush on the inside and nosed the favorite, Tenole, out. This finish was a peculiar one. The Fiddler was on the extreme inside and Tenole was on the outside. From the grandstand the angle is very bad, and it appeared as though Tenole had won, but, as a matter of fact, Pay the Fiddler beat him by a long neck. The judges said it was nowhere near such a close thing as the fifth race was.

The first race had eleven cheap maidens as contenders and in very slow time Heroics beat Tulane. Graziella, at the liberal price of 2 to 1, had no trouble in disposing of her field in the fourth event.

The firm of Keene & Ryan seems to be getting decidedly the worst of the selling race war. Mr. Keene never has interfered in any way with it but has had his horses boosted twice at Lakeside, May 23, the last time Braw Lad won he was run up $700 over his entered price, and yesterday after First Past won, Albert Simons raised him from $700 to $1,000. Keene retained his horses in both instances.

"Billy" Myers now has charge of the track at Harlem and he deserves being highly complimented for his recent work. There has been rain almost every day since the meeting opened, but the track as a rule has been better than could be expected. Yesterday it was pretty near at its best. Myers has the harrows at work all the time and even has them out between races. Heretofore owners have been afraid to start horses that are the least bit unsound over the Harlem track; but Myers claims that from now on it will have a sufficient cushion on top to accommodate all kinds of dicky legged horses.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Christopher Chinn, who officiated as starter at the Fair Grounds for so many years, has quite a breeding establishment near Harrodsburg, Ky. Mr. Chinn owns the imported horse Odd Fellow, and has a choice band of broodmares on his farm. This year's crop of yearlings at the Chinn farm numbers fifteen, of which ten are colts. Among the bunch is a full brother to C. A. Tilles' speedy race mare Ferroll, by Himyar-Mme. Julia. Captain Tilles bought this colt from Chinn last spring, paying a fancy price for the youngster. The colt is small, but has grown fast in the past month, and Mr. Chinn thinks he will make a fast horse. One of the best looking yearlings at the Chinn farm is a full brother to Brewer Schorr's two-year-old, The Rush, by Odd Fellow—Chantress. The dam of this colt is sister to those two sterling performers, Rosinante and Don Quixote. One of the raciest looking fillies on the farm is a bay by Odd Fellow, out of the dam of Minnie Murphy and George Krats. Among the other yearlings at the farm are colts by Odd Fellow out of the dams of Jack B. B. and Dulac. Of the sixteen foals at the farm this spring eleven are colts. Among the bunch is a full brother to Dare II. Senator O'Brien's famous old race mare, May Thompson, has been at the Chinn farm for the past year. She was bred to Odd Fellow this spring, and the owner has ordered the mare shipped to his farm, near Stillwater, Minn.

Nearly every three-year-old in the Schorr stable is eligible to start in the St. Louis Derby this month, but W. Overton, the crack Belvidere colt, is about the only horse the Memphis turfman will start in the great three-year-old classic. Lieber Anton, the big Hanover colt, was receiving a special "prep" for the stake when he went wrong, the trouble being the same that knocked the colt out in his two-year-old form. Ordnung, the big Order colt, is also on the shelf. Cathedral, the Candlemas colt is hardly good enough to win a Derby. Sea Lion, the son of Deceiver, was turned out of training as soon as the stable arrived here. Nothing has been heard of Albert Swind, the Jim Gore colt, since last spring. He was touted to win the Little Rock Derby, but never started in the stake. Albert Swind is a three-year-old maiden. W. Overton was the crack two-year-old of the west last season. His impost in the Derby will be 122 pounds. George Walker, the trainer of the Schorr string, said yesterday that he intended to start W. Overton in the near future. The colt is moving along nicely, but is still high in flesh, and a race or two under his belt before the Derby will not do him any harm. Applegate & McAvoy's Prince McClurg, winner of the Latonia Derby, is receiving a special "prep" for the St. Louis Derby over the Louisville track. W. W. Darden's Leo Planter, another candidate for the St. Louis Derby, is at Latonia, where he will make his next appearance in the Himyar stakes. —St. Louis Republic.

A pleasant little scene occurred at Morris Park recently. David Gideon met his old trainer John Hyland, who now manages August Belmont's stable, and, after shaking hands with him said:

"John, we have at Holmdell the best foal I have ever seen. He is by His Highness, out of The Butterflies. Both these horses won the Futurity, thanks to your intelligence and care. I am sure The Butterflies would not have won except for you. I am going to name this colt Hyland, and if he is half as good as the man he is named for he will be the best horse in America."

The veteran trainer blushed like a school girl and finally stammered: "That's very kind of you, Mr. Gideon. I appreciate that very much."

Then Hyland grew reminiscent. "If The Butterflies had good legs," said he, "she would have been the grandest mare in America. I remember working her at Sheepshead Bay a mile and an eighth in 1:52. After the trial she broke down flat. Doctor Knapp put his arm around her neck and helped her off the track. Why, one time, after she had been in the stable ten days, I took her out and started her against Domino. Mr. Gideon told me I was crazy to think I could win. Well, she just caught that black whirlwind, choked him to death and won the race. Nobody will ever know how good she was."

Mr. W. Hendrie headed the list of winning owners at the recent Toronto meeting. The owners winning $400 or more were: W. Hendrie, $6,950; J. E. Seagram, $2,440; G. W. Graydon, $1,325; J. Brennan, $1,275; J. S. Wadsworth, $1,150; Carruthers & Shields, $1,075; N. Dymant, $800; A. M. Orpen, $766; S. Harlan, $625; P. M. Civill, $500; L. Reinhardt Jr., $500; W. Weir, $450; James O'Connor, $400; Frank Martin, $400. The horses winning more than $500 were: Toddy Ladle, $2,070; Butterscotch, $1,865; Satirist, $1,335; Sarmatian, $1,165; Gold Car, $1,100; Duke of Middleburg, $975; High Tide II., $875; Florida Rose, $776; Guilder, $725; Alpaca, $575

MARTIMAS DOING WELL.

A correspondent writing to the Spirit of the Times from Toronto says:

"Martimas looks well, though he has not grown to any great extent, but he has spread into a very muscular horse of enormous power behind the saddle. Still I was glad that Mr. Hendrie did not start him, for it would have been a pity to have had him beaten and his reputation sullied when it looks very possible that he may prove the best three-year-old of the year, east, west, north or south. It was satisfactory that Gold Car, for whom the president of the Canadian Jockey Club gave a liberal price when he found that Martimas was too backward, fulfilled the task for which he was bought.

"In the Toronto Cup he had bad luck, as he grabbed his quarter, but even without this accident he would not have beaten Satirist at five pounds. In this Brookdale-bred son of Juvenal and Laura Gould, Mr. Seagram has a three-year-old that is a good deal better than useful. He is rather small and may not be up to much weight, but he is speedy and stanch. In the Cup he made all his own running and stuck it out to the end like a true race horse. In Martimas and Satirist the Canadians have two three-year-olds that every one has to reckon with. Satirist is of a rare good pattern. His head and forehead are perfectly modeled and I may mention that so excellent a judge as my old friend, Mr. Rhody Pringle, picked him as a yearling out of a bunch of thirty or forty youngsters.

There is a good deal as to the future policy of the Ontario Jockey Club that is interesting. Next year the meeting will probably begin on the Queen's birthday, May 24, which falls on a Thursday, and will last nine days to the Saturday week. This will be better in many ways. The season will be more advanced and the weather warmer and more settled and the horses further advanced in condition. Besides the Queen's Plate can then be run on the 24th. The reason this has not been done heretofore is that the conditions call for maidens and it was not thought fair to necessitate the saving of the candidates beyond the opening day.

"The club, it is hoped, will soon find itself in a position to carry out the alterations that the course still needs. The backstretch is very narrow, only some thirty feet, but the widening of it necessitates reclaiming land from the lake and is consequently an expensive job. Land is to be filled in and new stalls built. This would seem a risky thing to do from the sanitary standpoint hereabouts, but malaria is unknown in Toronto. Incidentally with reference to the apparently slow time made in some of the races it is a fact that the track was recently remeasured and found to be seventy feet over the mile.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Macy, Charles Vestal's recent purchase, is reported to have gone lame and may have to be thrown out of training temporarily. Macy is the horse Vestal bought of brewer Schorr for $3,500.

Eighty-four yearlings from Haggins' stock farm in California have arrived at Monmouth Park. The horses will remain there until June 27. They are in charge of Charles Littlefield, Jr.

J. E. Madden has just purchased from R. W. Waiden a two-year-old sister to Filigrane. She has been sent to the Hamburg establishment and will be mated with Plaudit.

Jockey Powers, engaged at New Orleans last winter to ride for August Belmont, has proved a rank failure and in consequence has been released from his engagement.

Winner—B. g. by The Bard—Tragedienne.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving and staggering; second, third and fourth were all under keen pressure. Heroics was extremely lucky to win. Hamilton had Tulane pinned in on the rail, making it impossible for Bloss to use his whip. The latter rode a bad race on Tulane all the way through. He was shut off numerous times down the backstretch and used poor judgment in trying to squeeze in between Heroics and the rail on the turn. It looked as though Hamilton hit Tulane over the nose with his whip through the stretch. Bloss made no claim, however, and the incident went unnoticed. Charlo finished very strong. Vaseline made up much ground the last half. Long Dandy ran a bad race. Brown Dick ran as if short. Mark him in the same company.
Corrected weights—Brown Dick, 109.
Heroics, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Tulane, place, 3 to 1; show, 7 to 5. Charlo, show, 15 to 1. Brown Dick, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

12535 SECOND RACE—5-8 Mile. Purse $400. $75 to second; $25 to third. 2-year-olds. Selling.

Time, 1:24, 24, 37, 49, 1:02.
Winner—B. c. by Order—Happy Sally II.
Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly at the end after early punishment. First Past was the best and showed it and is more than an ordinary youngster. Mitten ran a good race. She was on the outside all the way. In the stretch, though, she bore in considerably, interfering slightly with Maharajah. Hamilton claimed foul against Mitten and it was allowed. Maharajah was under the whip the last three furlongs. Hilda H. finished stoutly. This filly was interfered with and badly messed about on the far turn. Dick Furber seems to be of no present account. Santi Ague showed a lot of speed. At one time on the far turn she was lapped on First Past. The winner was run up $300 over his entered price by Albert Simons. Mr. Keene of the firm of Keene & Ryan, bid the odd $5, and bought the colt in.
First Past, place, out. Maharajah, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Hilda H., show, 2 to 1.

12536 THIRD RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $400. $75 to second; $25 to third. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances.

Time, 1:24, 23, 36, 49, 1:01, 1:15.
Winner—B. m. by Florist—Mary Louise.
Off at the first break to a good start. The first three were all in a heap and driving hard. Queen of Song was undoubtedly the best and only incompetent jockeying lost the race for her. The filly was coming away cleverly about the sixteenth post and from all indications had the race won when McCann foolishly drew his whip. The Queen bore in and slightly interfered with Flora Louise. Nutt, who rode Hugh Penny, rode up in behind the pair in front. He, of course, could not get through and made a grandstand play by pulling up. This made it look as though Queen of Song caused more interference than she really did. Consequently the disqualification. Flora Louise ran a grand race. Pope Leo was right there. Lucky Star had an easy race. Del Hart is very fast for a short distance. Sam McKeever could not raise a gallop. Throw his race out. The early pace was very fast. Private time for the race was 1:14.
Overweights—Sam McKeever, 5 pounds.
Flora Louise, place, 4 to 1; show, 8 to 5. Hugh Penny, place, evens; show, 1 to 2; Pope Leo, how, 8 to 1. Lucky Star, place, 3 to 2; show, 3 to 5; Sam McKeever, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. m. by Aintree—Quick.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily at the end; second easily; third and fourth driving hard. Graziella was the best and had speed to loan. She held the race safe all the way. Clay hit her a few times with the whip about the eighth post and she got away from it like a scared hare. King's Guard ran a good race. He was well ridden. Phidias was slow to begin and made up his ground too rapidly down the backstretch. He then had nothing to finish with. Hanlight seems to be of little or no account. Lobengula propped and refused to try all the way. Fintan had no speed and ran a bad race.
Scratched—12497 Yours Truly, 107; 12185 Goose Liver, 109; 12426 Ramona, 107.
Overweights—Graziella, 2 pounds; Phidias, 4.

Winner—Ch. c. by Aintree—Missive.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a long, hard drive of two; the next three were doing their best. As the race was run Inlook should have won. W. Bain, in an effort to ride a finish, did everything but fall off. On the other hand, Beauchamp rode a very strong finish on Ailanto. The latter tired on the stretch turn, and at that point seemed beaten. Beauchamp, though, never gave up and rode like a demon to the end. Inlook had the race won below the sixteenth post, where Bain threw it away by drawing his whip. Jeff ran a good race and Zaza a bad one. Iznik was right there.
Ailanto, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 3. Inlook, place, 4 to 1; show, 8 to 5. Jeff, show, 3 to 1. Zaza, place, 3 to 5; show, out.

Winner—Br. g. by Major Domo—Arilla.
Post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won in the hardest kind of a drive of two; third and fourth were also driving. Pay the Fiddler got up in the last twenty yards. He was coming fast and Tenole was quitting at the finish. The latter seemed to bear out all through the stretch. At that he was the best and should have won. Murat and Duty both tired badly. Whirmitiline ran fairly well. Daily Racing Form had bad racing luck. Rosa Clay can do better.
Scratched—12293 Lillian Seibel, 104.
Overweights—Cochise, 3 pounds; Chenier, 2.
Pay the Fiddler, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Tenole, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Murat, show, evens. Duty, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5.

Scratched—12413 Czarowitz, 114; (12369) Wilson, 112; 12415 Pat Morrissey, 111; 12258 Very Light, 90.
Osric II., place, 3 to 10; show, out. Eight Bells, place, even; show, 1 to 3. Red Pirate, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—Ch. c. by Sir Modred—Katrine.
Post 11 minutes. Start fair. Won easily. Modrine handled the weight well and won like a good colt. He was nicely ridden. Withers, slow to get away as usual, closed strong. Will like a route. Pettifogger ran his race. Garterless had speed but did not like the weight. King Bramble ran a fair race for the first time out.

Scratched—12469 The Corinthian, 102; 12502 Eileen Daly, 102.

Overweights—Battle Royal, 2 pounds; King Bramble, 3.
Modrine, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Withers, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Pettifogger, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Br. f. by Kingston—Hypocrite.
Off at the first break. Start good. Won driving. Admission is a good filly. She made a new track record. Ethelbert was waited with too long, Spencer evidently expecting the leader to come back. She is not the kind to rate along behind, however, and if Spencer had gone to her sooner he might have won. Candleblack was short but is about ready and will do to watch in any company at a mile. Tragedian had nowhere near the speed required. The last mile was run in 1:39.

Scratched—6972 Tillo, 122; 12197 Dr. Eichberg, 112; 12499 Roysterer, 105.

Admission, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Ethelbert, place, out.

Winner—B. c. by Hindoo—Alga.
Post 8 minutes. Start straggling. Won in a long, hard drive of three. Ben Hadad was a good horse today and received a vigorous ride. Danforth ran up to his best mark. St. Clair closed strong under a strong ride. St. Lorenzo met with interference on the far turn and lost ground. Concord got away badly as usual. Mazo was always outrun.

Scratched—12471 Handball, 138; (12306) Caesarian, 135; 12498 Blarneystone, 117; 12498 Athy, 115.
